Chinese American International School in San Francisco, CA seeks a

Sixth Grade Humanities Teacher

Exempt, full-time position beginning school year 2026-2027
This position does not require fluency in Mandarin

OPPORTUNITY

Join the vibrant community at the Chinese American International School's new Forever Home campus on 19th Avenue as a Sixth Grade Humanities Teacher. Become part of a team striving to be the world's most innovative, inspiring, and influential Chinese English dual-language immersion school.

OUR IDEAL CANDIDATE

The ideal candidate finds resonance with CAIS's mission to Embrace Chinese, Become Our Best

Selves, and Contribute to a Better World; our Core Values of Courage, Curiosity, Inclusion, Kindness, and Perseverance; and our Strategic Vision 2020-2025 to Reimagine CAIS, Reimagine Success. This candidate thrives in a multi-cultural, collaborative environment. The ideal candidate is adept at student-centered pedagogy such as differentiated instruction, explicit instruction of literacy skills, use of assessment to inform teaching, and project-based learning. Our new team member will have opportunities to collaborate with other departments, integrating projects across the curriculum. CAIS offers a dynamic dual culture setting, in which faculty are immersed in a culture of language learners. We look for a candidate who will embrace and participate in CAIS's work to create an equitable, inclusive environment where all faculty, students, and families are supported in their individual identities.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES

Position responsibilities include (but are not limited to):

- Demonstrate teaching excellence, a growth mindset, professionalism, and integrity.
- Support the educational program by challenging, supporting, and engaging students.
- Successfully teach all assigned classes in accordance with grade appropriate best practices.
- Encompass a positive discipline approach in guiding student behavior.
- Develop a positive intellectual, emotional, and social environment within the classroom and a class community in which all children feel valued and a sense of belonging.
- Actively support and collaborate on school initiatives.
- Work collaboratively and maintain standards of respect, courtesy, and mutual consideration with the school community, including students, staff, and parents.
- Communicate effectively, promptly, and proactively with families.
- Use Reading and Writing Workshop models to inform English Language Arts classroom instruction and assessments.
- Collateral duties include teaching student electives, running student clubs, leading a student advisory group and various student supervision responsibilities.
- Work with the Chinese faculty to develop and deliver integrated Social Studies and Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion units.
- Prepare assessments, grades, and progress reports according to school procedures.
- Implement and integrate technology into curriculum.
- Attend faculty and division meetings including required meetings/events before the beginning of the school year and during the term of employment.

ESSENTIAL REQUIREMENTS

- Bachelor's degree
- Teaching experience with demonstrated success
- Commitment to meeting the needs of individual learners and promoting social and emotional development
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Dedication to equity and inclusion and ability to work with individuals from diverse backgrounds
- Commitment to school mission, policies, and initiatives

VALUED SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE

We value, but do not require, the following attributes:

- Teaching credential, Master's in Education (M.Ed.), or equivalent
- Personal experience with second language acquisition

COMPENSATION

CAIS offers a competitive salary commensurate with experience and education, as well as a comprehensive benefits package. The compensation range of $78,400-$126,400 reflects the full-time, school-year position. Please see the final page for a description of benefits.
